CRAWFORD AGAIN.

A LADY TELLS OF A STRANGE BOARDER IN ST. LOUIS.

She Claimed to be "Mrs. Reese," and Said Her Husband was a Traveling Man.

A DEMOCRAT reporter learned some exact information from a reliable gentleman to-day that makes somewhat clearer the long talked of disappearance of Editor Crawford, the former proprietor of the Sentinel.

For a long time his friends were unable to believe that the missing man had done anything that would weaken the good name for honor and integrity that he had established in Sedalia. It was hard to convince those who knew him that he had not been foully dealt with or had not wandered away during a temporary aberration of the mind.

Queer stories began to be in circulation, however, and the name of Miss Kate Reese was connected with that of the editor. She was formerly employed by him and it is thought that he "liked her pretty well."

Prior to Mr. Crawford's shaking the dust of Sedalia from his feet, Miss Reese had been absent from her home at Dresden about a month. She was supposed to be married to a traveling man named Brown, but none of her friends were known to have attended the nuptials and her exact residence was unknown.

Those with whom she corresponded were led to believe that she was living in New York, though the belief was shaken by the fact that the letters were always mailed upon a train. Directions were also given by which letters written to her could be forwarded from St. Louis, where she claimed to have lived a short time.

A DEMOCRAT reporter interviewed a gentleman to-day who has just returned from a short stay at Mt. Vernon, Mo., where he was reliably informed of some very suspicious circumstances that were observed in St. Louis.

The wife of the gentleman who related the incidents to the reporter's informant was in St. Louis about two weeks before Crawford's disappearance. She was stopping at a private boarding house, No. 1411 Washington avenue. She became acquainted there with a young lady who tallied exactly with the description of Miss Reese.

Being thrown together every day, like all women, they soon struck up an acquaintance. This was strengthened when it was learned that both had friends near Dresden. The young lady finally stated that she was married and that her name was "Mrs. Reese." Her husband was a traveling man and spent most of his time on the road.

The women remained at the same house about two weeks. At the end of this time, the newspapers were suddenly filled with news of the disappearance of Editor Crawford of Sedalia.

Soon after, a man appeared at the boarding house one evening after supper and was introduced by "Mrs. Reese" as her husband. She appeared agitated but explained it by saying that her husband was indignant because she had not secured more fashionable quarters (a weak story) and that they would immediately move to a hotel. The "husband" kept his back turned to the lady who related these details but she is positive that he was none other than Crawford. He assisted the wife to pack her trunk and both of them left soon after. Shortly afterwards an expressman called and hauled the trunk away.

Neither husband nor wife told where they were going and nothing further was ever heard of them. Should interested parties desire to follow up the case, the thing to do will be to locate the expressman. The story may then commence to unravel.

The names of the DEMOCRAT's informants are not given for the reason that they will not allow their names to be publicly used in connection with the matter. Their names can be learned by parties personally interested.

STOPPED WITH SHOTGUNS.

Stockmen in the Indian Territory Resist the Shipment of Scurvy Diseased Cattle.

There came near being bloodshed at Chetopa, in the territory, last Wednesday. Joe Baker, of Slater, Mo., who for many years has been engaged in the cattle business in Indian territory, attempted to move a shipment into Chetopa that was supposed to be infected with Texas fever.

Over a hundred excited stockmen armed themselves with shotguns and resisted any attempts to move the cattle further south.

Attorney Sedgwick and Traffic Claim Agent A. T. Drew were called by wire from Parsons and soon arrived upon the scene of the blockade. It was finally shown that the cattle were not diseased and that the shipment had originated outside of the redistricted districts and the shipment was allowed to pass.

TURNED THE TABLES.

Smith, the Whiskey Drummer, Wins and Then Files $10,000 Suit Against the Plaintiff.

The case of Bengley versus Smith in which the defendant was charged with misappropriating money not his own was decided in Judge Fisher's court last evening in favor of Smith, the prosecuting attorney entering a nolle prosequi.

Immediately following the disposition of the case, Smith, at the instigation of his attorney, filed suit against the plaintiff in the sum of $10,000 for false imprisonment and defamation of character.

The defendants attorney, Mr. J. M. Cole, was seen by a DEMOCRAT reporter last night and expressed confidence that he would be successful in winning the suit.

"I have been acting as legal adviser for the McCormick Distilling company for ten years," said he, "and know that they would not have retained Mr. Smith in their employ had he been guilty of the charges preferred against him."

I have known him personally for eight years and his only fault is that of periodical drinking.

If the plaintiffs in the case which are defeated wanted Mr. Smith so badly, why did they wait a whole year before arresting him? He was in Kansas City all the time, as everybody knew—why not have arrested him before this?

Again, if Smith were guilty, is it natural to suppose that he would have come to Sedalia? This he not only did, but went in Bengley's saloon and took a drink with him. It was about half an hour later when the warrant was sworn out for his arrest.

Now as to the other case wherein Mr. Murphy brought a similar charge against my client: The grand jury not even found an indictment against him; and the local press was mistaken in saying that the case was now pending before the circuit court.

Mr. Cole and his client left for Kansas City last night.

ANOTHER ACCIDENT.

In the Narrow Gauge Switch Yards—Colored Boy Hurt.

A colored lad aged about 13 years was run over in the Narrow Gauge switch yards last evening about four o'clock and received dangerous if not fatal injuries. His left leg near the ankle was crushed and his hip is dislocated.

John Lawson, for such is the boy's name, in common with several companions was amusing himself by pushing a flat car along the track when by some mishap he fell with the beforementioned result. He was conveyed to his home on Pacific street in an unconscious condition where his injuries were treated.

He is reported somewhat improved to-day, though he is still in a precarious condition.

Accidents of this kind in this section are becoming alarmingly frequent, and Marshal DeLong will take active steps toward putting a stop to further loafing in the yards by lads.

Green Ridge Visitors.

The following from Green Ridge are in the city to-day, most of them having come to attend a meeting of Pettis county Prohibitionists:

Geo. Hollenbeck, Wm. Baker, John Ireland, Van B. Whisker, Judge J. E. Carter, Rev. W. Q. Bennet, Rev. Thos. Marsh, Henry Wadleigh, also Eugene Helman, of Camp Branch.

SHE IS DEAD!

Myrtle Sturtevant Found in the Ohio River.

MYSTERIOUS LETTER

In the Hands of the Chief of Police—It May Explain Her Death.

CONNELL HAS GONE AWAY.

He is Said to Be Visiting Friends and Had Apparently Ended His Search.

Myrtle Sturtevant is dead.

The sorrow that this terrible news will bring to her friends in Sedalia will be almost unbearable, especially to her young lady friends.

Ah, the heartbreaking grief of that poor mother! All the conjectures about her going astray, all the evil insinuations about this poor, unfortunate girl have been swallowed up in the dark waters of the river.

How sickening and mocking sound the words of Tom Hood's poem,

"One more unfortunate,
Weary of breath;
Rashly impudent,
Gone to her death."

Who caused her death?

The finger of justice points in a certain direction. It may never be known whether she was mad or betrayed, but if a black crime has been committed by one who should have protected her, vengeance will find him out with a fury more terrible than all the maddening tortures of hell.

God is great; he sees both the good and the evil, and none shall escape his wrath.

The following from Cincinnati stated exclusively in Sedalia in to-day's DEMOCRAT tells of the discovery:

The body of Myrtle Sturtevant was found in the Ohio river last night. Miss Sturtevant had been missing from her home in Columbus, O., for several weeks. She had a lover named T. F. Connell, of Columbus, and it has been the belief right along that he knew of her whereabouts. The girl's father, a prominent citizen of Columbus, came here when the girl disappeared and sought the aid of the police. The city was searched, including all of the questionable houses, but no trace of the missing Myrtle was found until it was reported that she had been at Mollie Williams' house on George street.

A detective visited the place, but could find no trace of Miss Sturtevant. Now that the body has been found, it is almost certain that she learned of the officers being on her track, and rather than be discovered threw herself into the Ohio River. Since her disappearance her father has been traveling from city to city, following every clew and advertising extensively. Her body was found in the river on the Covington side and taken in charge by the Coroner there. It was at first thought that the body was that of Miss Nellie Maloney, one of the victims of the steamer Golden Rule disaster, and a report to that effect was spread. But when the clothing was examined the body was identified as that of Miss Sturtevant. Connell, the lover, mysteriously disappeared from Cincinnati several days ago. He had come here with Mr. Sturtevant, and ostensibly aided in the search. But the police have been convinced throughout that he knew where the missing girl was. A letter reached police headquarters to-day addressed to Connell in care of the Chief of Police. It may be from Myrtle Sturtevant. A report came from Springfield, O., last night that Connell is there visiting a relative, but has not been pushing his search for his sweetheart.

Fred Richt, now in the drug business at Wichita, will display his Apollo like form in blue tights to the assembled multitudes who are to witness a game of base ball between the "Fats" and the "Leans" in Wichita next Thursday. Fred is billed as a "lean."

The Wichita Beacon says that "The ladies will be admitted free and one surgeon will be allowed for each team. He must come with a gallon of arnica, stimulants (not intoxicating, of course) and a bucket of water."

Dwelling Destroyed.

Henry Flynn, a colored man living in Lincolnville, had the misfortune to lose his house by fire at 2:30 o'clock this morning. The building was valued at $800, with an insurance of $450.

perfect arrangements for the erection of a new and vastly large building in St. Louis for the Convent of the Good Shepherd. It will be in the suburbs of the city and will cost many thousands of dollars.

It is a terrible commentary upon the times to know that the present home at the corner of Seventeenth and Pine is wholly inadequate to accommodate applicants for shelter. There are nearly 600 people within its walls and the comparative percentage is constantly on the increase. Two years ago, a class under the supervision of one of the sisters numbered but about 60; now it has swelled to 150. The institution is self supporting and is the most practicable method for saving fallen women that has ever been subjected to the test.

AN UNJUST SCHEME.

Some of our republican friends when rallied about the apparent free trade tendencies of their reciprocity scheme, ask why then do not democrats favor it?

The answer is not hard to find. Instead of leaving commerce to be governed by the laws of commerce and permitting every man to be the judge of where and with whom it is to his interest to trade, the republican reciprocity scheme gives the president of the United States the power of controlling the commerce of Americans with foreign nations instead of giving the man who raises grain and the man who manufactures agricultural machinery the same and equal right to take the product of his labor abroad, exchange it for other products and bring those products to this country, it gives the president the right to say whose products shall be admitted free of duty and whose shall be heavily taxed.

Thus under the practical working of this scheme the American manufacturer of sewing machines or farm wagons can send a ship load of his products to some South American agricultural country, exchange them in the market there and bring home free of duty what he received for his labor. But let the grain raiser send a cargo of wheat to Europe and exchange it for a cargo of clothing or blankets and when he attempts to bring them home he will be compelled to pay a tax of from 50 to 100 per cent.

In short, the scheme was intended to open markets to our manufactures and it was never the purpose of its framers to open the markets of those countries that need our grain, our beef and our pork.

It is a dangerous power to place in the hands of any president, and it is a scheme that will be used to build up certain classes.

If it is trade extension the republicans want, a simple general law providing that all products purchased with proceeds received from the sale of exports from this country should be admitted free of duty.

THE SCHOOL-HOUSE FLAG.

What has become of the flags that were presented to the public schools to be floated over the various buildings during school hours. At no small expense staffs were placed upon the various buildings, and arrangements were perfected whereby the nation's colors were to be displayed from the temples of education throughout the city.

The proposed custom is a pretty one, and should be practiced. Nothing will do so much toward inspiring a patriotic love for the emblem of our nation's independence as to associate it with the daily school life of our children. It becomes as familiar as McGuffey's readers, and withal venerated and loved for its connection with a glorious past and a magnificent present.

The flag stands for the country, and the child who loves the one will love the other. Bring forth the banners of our land, then, and let our children familiarize themselves with its colors and drink in with the study of its beautiful splendor a reverential love and devotion for the country of whose achievements the flag is the emblem.

Thanks to the able, though involuntary, assistance of our friends the enemy, the democracy of Pettis county is in splendid shape to win a sweeping victory. Make that victory a certainty by nominating a county ticket which it will be a pride, as well as a pleasure, for every democrat in the county to cordially support from top to bottom.

The democracy should conduct its campaign and make its nominations just as though it expected to fight the combined forces of the republicans and the third party in November. Then, in case of a fusion it will be ready for the fray.

It is the principles of the democratic party that must win us our but there is no good sense in handicapping the party with a weak candidate.

Wire nails sell at less per pound than the tariff upon them—and yet the democratic papers yell: "The tariff is a tax."—Marshall Capital. The question is not how much the tariff is, but how much lower nails would sell for if the tariff was removed.

The Springfield road convention is attracting the attention to which it is entitled from all over the county. The meeting will be a successful one.

The Hall-Mansur fight is occupying the entire attention of the Moberly papers, and no small part of it is entertaining and readable.

Nobody but Harrison seems to want the republican presidential nomination; it is little Ben or nobody.

BEYOND A CENTURY.

Mary Staley, a Negro Woman in Warsaw, Dies at the Age of 108 Years.

Last Saturday, Mary Staley, colored, the oldest person in this section of the country, and well known in Benton county for more than fifty years, died, in her cabin, in the north part of Warsaw. She claimed to be 108 years old, and there is a general belief that she was right in her knowledge of her age. She was an intelligent and smart old woman, and retained her mind and activity to a marked degree, although for some time past she has been blind.

Aunt Mary is first remembered by the oldest inhabitants as belonging to ex-County Judge White, long since deceased. James Donald remembers her fifty years ago. Judge White was a pioneer of the Indian days. At that time she was considered as quite an old woman. Afterwards she belonged to Philip Hall, and later was brought by John Stanley, an uncle of J. M. Staley, of Lindsey township, who wanted her on account of her usefulness in caring for children. She was with the Staley family when emancipated by the war. Her son, known as Limas Wright, died some twelve years ago, and was between fifty and sixty years old. His son Bill, an insane person, died the day before his grandmother. She has always had the care of him, and wanted to outlive him, which she was permitted to do. He was about fifty years old, and had always been a county charge. Aunt Mary was a fine specimen of the kindhearted, faithful and industrious old slave, and probably was always kindly treated and respected whether owned as property or free. Her great age was a wonder to some of the colored people. One man told us that she "could easily remember when the Osage river was a little bit of a creek, easily stepped over."—Warsaw Enterprise.

A. O. U. W.

The Meeting to be Held in St. Louis, May 12th.

The Overseer, a periodical published in the interest of the A. O. U. W. of Missouri, contains a lengthy account of what may be expected at the convention of the order to be held in the Future Great May 12th. Among other things it says:

Those who are here Wednesday evening, the 11th, can witness the grand sham naval battle between the gun boats on the Mississippi river, and the greatest pyrotechnic display ever witnessed. The fleet will start from the foot of Anna street, and the bombardment will continue until the entire harbor is traversed. Our guests will witness the battle from the six large boats of the Wiggins Ferry company, and the excursion boats which will follow the gun boats at a safe distance, while others will view it from the great St. Louis bridge.

The celebrated Flambeau club, of Sedalia, Mo., sixty strong, will conduct the pyrotechnic display, and many novelties will be introduced.

At nine o'clock Thursday morning, the 12th, the lodges will assemble at Twelfth and Olive streets, for the parade. Grand Marshal Stephen Dellacella with 200 aids will form the parade in the following order:

First, a battalion of mounted police, the United States colors and the colors of the grand marshal; next, a double band of forty pieces, then the grand marshal and staff, then comes the Sedalia Flambeau club, the Busch zouaves; next, a regiment of the sons of the A. O. U. W. members, each boy carrying a United States flag; next comes ten divisions of the A. O. U. W. members, each division composed of from ten to twenty lodges. Each colors, and it is the desire of the grand marshal that each lodge will provide itself with a banner flag, or guidon, designating the name, number and location.

THE NEW RAILROAD.

Three Directors Nominated Last Night to be Elected at Springfield Monday.

The Sedalia and Pettis county stock holders in the proposed S. S. M. N. railway met at the Commercial club rooms last night to nominate three gentlemen who will be elected as directors from this place for the coming year at the annual meeting which will be held at Springfield on April 25th.

O. A. Crandall was made president and W. L. Porter secretary of the meeting.

R. H. Moses, W. L. Porter and W. H. Powell, Jr., the old directors, on motion of J. C. Thompson were instructed to represent Sedalia's interest at Springfield on next Monday. This is a good selection and a wise one when the large amount of careful work to be done in the near future is taken into consideration. J. C. Thompson, J. S. White, O. A. Crandall, R. H. Moses and a number of other gentleman addressed the meeting.

There will be called in Kansas City in a short time a meeting of two representatives each from the S. S. M. & N., the Brookfield & Northern and the Iowa Extension of the Brookfield & Northern to arrange preliminaries for the consolidation of all these roads under one management. This will combine the interests and the resources of these different roads in a way that practically assures the construction of the road. The line will run from Springfield, Mo., through Sedalia to Centerville, Iowa.

W. L. Porter, of this city, attended a meeting of these different lines in Brookfield last Tuesday, for the purpose of consolidating these roads. The consolidation means that some northern trunk line will take hold of the enterprise and construct the road.

ROMANCE.

With Dracyn Head and Folded Wing It Lives in Incompleteness. From the Omaha World Herald.

Everyday life has its romance. Here's our friend, the sad young man; melancholy he is, with a sadness, at times, so profound one fears to penetrate it—dark eyes, big, weary depths of intensity confined that he fears to let go. A face at once spiritual and refined. Brought up in the church, he had been an ascetic; reared among those who have the joy of life, he stands apart and pities them; while at once he envies the "lily-white disoccupation" of their lives, that allows them to enjoy to-day, leaving the past a glittering string of vacuities, the future to wear out an endless list of trivialities.

He goes into society and courts the gayest of the gay—married flirts, divorcees, beautiful women, women of the world. Despising wine, he sometimes drinks the dregs for gladness—for joy—all to no avail. The gloom of life pervades it all—the revelry, the women's eyes, the wine. Abstemious, he would be prodigal; west, he would be south; of courteous manner, he envies men who swagger. A melancholy man, he goes about seeking happiness—seeking but never finding, weary with the quest, sad from habit and from a life in which nothing happens.

The soft illusion of love has never filmed his sad eyes. Men are men to him, and women, women. Sometimes he longs for ecstasy, and often he catches gleams of promised happiness in a lovely face, but recoils before the awful enui of mediocrity or is repulsed by a gaucherie that brings him back to the original proposition, woman is but woman just as man is man.

Ambition which to other men is but a sort of steady beacon, scintillates blindingly before him and, like a swinging ball of light, cuffs and knocks him hard.

Of life, the secret he believes to lie in intellectual activity satisfied. You would hear the romance of a sad young man. There is nothing more to say. "And lived in peace and happiness ever after," is a finish that brings satiety with it. Were our friend a pompous hero, or had he grasped the fame of belles-lettres; or yet again were he content in domesticity—bah! with me, you would take no interest in him.

Romance after all, lives in incompleteness!

Congressman Heard.

From the Ashland Bagle.

Elsewhere will be found the announcement of Hon. John T. Heard as a candidate for congress from this, the Seventh district. No greater compliment can be paid this distinguished gentleman than to say, that a congressional nomination position has been twice conferred upon him, and the indications are that the same honor will be done him again this year. The secret of his success is, that he keeps near his constituents and is faithful in the discharge of the duties of his high office. At the last election he increased the democratic majority in his district largely and will most likely run ahead of his ticket this time.

AMUSEMENTS.

"The Cruise-Kee-Lawn."

"The Cruise-Kee-Lawn," with Dan McCarthy, the favorite Irish comedian, and an excellent company, will be seen at the opera house on the 26th.

Lew Dockstader's latest and greatest hit in the way of a song is entitled, "I Asked to be Excused." It has made an immense hit everywhere. He will sing it here next Wednesday, the 27th, at the opera house on the appearance of the famous Dockstader Minstrel organization.

The Nibbles Big Burlesque company will be the attraction at Wood's opera house Friday, April 29th, and will undoubtedly pack the house. The new burlesque, "His Nibs and His Nobs" is a fantastically ferocious of frivolous fancies and funny facts abounding with entrancing music, beautiful girls, grotesque dances, gorgeous costumes and scenic effects of supreme magnificence.

Hon. Mont Carnes, Grand Foreman.

We take the pleasure of presenting to our many readers this month a portrait of our Grand Foreman, Hon. Mont Carnes, of Sedalia, who was born in the city of Cincinnati, Ohio, October 8th, 1847, was educated there and removed to Missouri, locating at Sedalia in 1870. He embarked in the coal and lead business, and was twice elected constable of Sedalia. He joined Amity Lodge No. 69 November 21st, 1881, from which date he has been a zealous worker for the Order. Having served his lodge faithfully in various positions, he was chosen as one of the representatives of that lodge to the Grand Lodge meeting of 1888, likewise at the session in 1890, at which time he was elected Grand Overseer, and at the session of 1892 was elected Grand Foreman by acclamation. Not only has his ability been recognized by the A. O. U. W. but the people of his district elected him a member of the 36th General Assembly of Missouri in 1890 by a handsome majority.—A. O. U. W. Overseer.

Public Speaking.

A LETTER FOUND.

Which Shows the Cattlemen Hired Assassins.

COST OVER $3,000 TO KILL TWO MEN.

A Message From President Harrison to the People of Buffalo, Wyo., in Which He Advises Peace and Order—
The People Pleased.

BUFFALO, WYO., April 23.—A man named A. G. Dunning, of Idaho, is now in jail at this place. He was one of the party of regulators, but in the march from the T. A. ranch he escaped. He was arrested on suspicion by the sheriff on Sunday. He states that he was hired by the secretary of the state stock commission. Dunning had a letter in his pocket directed to an Idaho friend in which he told the whole story. This letter is now in the possession of the sheriff. Dunning says that Champion and Ray had been warned and would not have been killed had they heeded the notice. The hired assassins, he says, were to receive $6, 000 and $50 each for every man killed.
He says it cost over $3,000 to get Champion and Ray.

Jim Dudley, alias Gus Green, of Paris, Tex., the invader who was wounded in the fight with the rustlers and who had his leg amputated at Fort McKinney, died Saturday and was buried here Sunday.

Covered with mud from head to foot, with horses completely played out, 200 cavalrymen, guarding four cattlemen, halted in front of Michael Henry's ranch at Brown's Spring at 6 o'clock Thursday evening. They left Fort Mc-Kinney at 10 o'clock Sunday morning and had been five days covering 115 miles.

Maj. Fencler is in command of the expedition, his soldiers comprising companies C, E and H of the Sixth cavalry.

The soldiers are not in love with their trip. A very important feature of the expedition is a Hotchkiss gun, carried by an army mule. It, more than any other thing, commanded the respect of the rustlers. It is related on good authority that while the cattlemen were besieged at the "T. A." ranch, Bobby Ford, a wealthy merchant of Buffalo, offered the commanding officer at Fort McKinney $5,000 for a cannon.

When the cavalcade left the fort Sunday morning, all armed with rifles, six-shooters and the majority with rifles, were circling around. Maj. Fencler did not like the looks of the crowd and ordered all strangers out of camp.
Down a hill to Clear creek moved the procession. There were wagons, buggies and even carriages, while men and women on horseback were so numerous that a blockade was almost caused.
This made the major mad and a few hasty orders, just as hastily executed, had the desired effect and the road was once more cleared. A half mile further on two dozen cowboys began circling around, acting as though trying to cut out cattle from a bunch. They got so dangerously near the prisoners that the order was given to make ready to repel an attack and the gleaming barrels of the carbines dampened the ardor of the horsemen.

The escort of guard of the cattlemen comprised three companies, one of which marched in front, one in the rear and the other divided and marched on either flank. The captives occupied three wagons in the center of the cavalcade.
At various points along the route armed men were seen and on several occasions cowboys slipped up and held conversation with some of the captives, but not a shot was fired and no symptoms of hostility were manifested.

There are about 150 armed men in town, organized as home guards, the organization being established last Sunday night. It includes 200 men under the command of Frank Smith, of Powder river, divided into squads of ten men each, under command of a sergeant. The streets are patrolled by a strong guard and all travelers to and from the town are inspected.

Rumors are current of other bands of invaders coming from Montana and elsewhere to aid the stockmen. The outposts of the organization will seek to give timely warning of the approach of any such party. Fears are entertained by many that the attempts of the stockmen will be renewed. A few citizens here suspected of having been favorable to the stockmen are in fear of violence from the other party.

The streets have been quiet, but full of men, and business is almost at a standstill. There is no courting, but men stand talking of anything new.

Many absurd but dangerous rumors are reported and more or less are believed. Sheriff Angus has turned the prisoners in jail over to Col. Van Horn.
Violence is not apprehended at present.

The following message is in reply to an appeal from the people of Buffalo to President Harrison asking that an investigation into the cattle trouble in Wyoming be made and justice done to all concerned:

C. J. Hagerson and Others, Buffalo, Wyo.
EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, April 22.—The governor of your state has called upon me in conformity with the constitution of the United States for aid in suppressing domestic violence and threatened bloodshed.

I could not know anything of the situation, except as it was stated by him and could not refuse aid of troops to preserve the peace.

The prisoners will as soon as the state authorities are prepared to receive them be turned over to the civil authorities and our connection with the matter will end unless further called upon to aid the state authorities in preserving the peace. I do not doubt that the executive and judicial authorities of your state will without fear or favor bring to trial and punish those who have violated the law by ordering, abetting, or committing the same.

Nothing will be done to shield any guilty persons.
My counsel as your fellow citizen is to use every effort to allay excitement and proceed in all things peacefully and upon lawful lines. I will, of course, see any representatives you may send, but you will see that I can do no more than to advise you to use the law and to prevent violence and everything else rests with the state authorities.

BENJAMIN HARRISON.
The people of this place are very much pleased with President Harrison's reply and are satisfied that a thorough investigation will be made and justice done to all concerned.

EUROPEAN ANARCHISTS.

An Austrian Ecclesiastic Murdered—In Paris Forty-five Suspects Captured.

VIENNA, April 23.—Dr. Dzerowicz, a high ecclesiastical dignitary of Rohatyn, Austrian Galicia, was walking in the vicinity of the town yesterday when he was suddenly set upon by two ruffians armed with cudgels, who beat him severely and then carried him to the river and threw him in. Fortunately some passers-by heard his cries and succeeded with much difficulty in rescuing him.
The two men, as soon as they had thrown their victim into the river—their evident intention being to drown him—escaped. Their identity is not known, but they are believed to be anarchists.
The similarity between the present attack and that made recently in Prussia upon Dr. Poninski by four desperate anarchists, is creating much comment in Austria.

IN PARIS.

PARIS, April 23.—The police learned yesterday of a number of lodgings occupied by anarchists and a raid was at once planned. This morning a number of gendarmes detailed for the purpose made a descent upon the houses where the anarchists lived and captured forty-five men, who were at once taken to the prefecture and locked up.

FROM OZARK COUNTY, MO.

A Tragedy Which Occurred There, Caused By a Quarrel Over Family Matters.

WEST PLAINS, MO., April 23.—News has just reached here of a tragedy last Wednesday in Ozark county. John Crawford and Pat Aldrich quarreled over family matters, the fuss resulting in Crawford shooting Aldrich, being himself slightly wounded. He retreated to his home, followed by Joseph Aldrich, son of the dead man.

Young Aldrich attempted to enter Crawford's house, but was put out. As he was ejected he fired a shot at himself. It struck Crawford in the eye, killing him instantly. Young Aldrich was slightly wounded. He, with two brothers, is now under arrest. Both dead men are well thought of and the killings have caused much excitement, which may become serious.

PASSENGER TRAIN DITCHED.

A Fireman Killed and Engineer Fatally Injured on the Missouri Pacific Near Nebraska City.

ATCHISON, Kan., April 23.—Passenger train No. 4 was ditched about a mile from Nebraska City and the fireman, Charles Myers, scalded to death beneath the engine. Engineer Mike Allen was badly scalded and it is believed he will die. Both the men lived in Kansas City, where they have families. The mail and baggage cars were thrown from the track, but no one was injured.

TAKEN TO KANSAS CITY.

KANSAS CITY, MO., April 23.—What is left of the wrecked Missouri Pacific train arrived here with the body of fireman Charles Myers and the injured engineer, Michael Allen, on board.

A Bimetallite Conference Called.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—The national silver committee at its meeting to-day, decided to call a national bimetallite convention to meet in this city on Thursday, May 26. The formal call, which will be accompanied by a brief address, will be issued to-morrow evening.

Mrs. Senator Brice's Fall.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—The fall given by Mrs. Senator Calvin S. Brice at the Arlington hotel last night was the most elaborate and elegant private ball ever given in Washington. It cost over $20,000, the flowers and plants alone costing more than $5,000.

at one cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof.

The president will leave Tuesday evening for New York to lay the corner stone of Gen. Grant's tomb at Riverside park on the 27th inst. He will be accompanied by Secretaries Elkins, Tracy and Rusk and other officials. Secretary Elkins will make an address.

Representative Bryan, of Nebraska, asked the house committee on appropriations to grant a hearing to a committee of the Grand Army of the Republic posts of Nebraska in opposition to the appropriation of $100,000 for the entertainment of the members of the Grand Army of the Republic at the encampment at Washington. Hearing will be accorded.

THE CONTEST ENDED.

Rockwell Will Retain His Seat in the House.

THIRTY-NINE DEMOCRATS OPPOSED.

In the Senate a Bill Increasing Pensions of Mexican War Veterans Unable to Do Manual Labor Was Passed—
Other Matters.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—A private pension bill to increase the pension of a private soldier of the Mexican war from $8 to $20 a month on account of inability to support himself, was after some discussion in the senate yesterday amended by substituting for it, on motion, of Mr. Vilas, a provision authorizing the secretary of the interior to increase the pension of every pensioner now on the rolls at $8 a month on account of service in the Mexican war to $12 when the pensioner is wholly disabled from manual labor and unable to provide himself with the necessities of life.

Mr. Hoar, from the judiciary committee, reported a bill to amend section 766 of the revised statutes (which authorizes appeal to the circuit court of the United States from state courts in cases where the person convicted claimed to have acted under the authority of any statute of the United States or under the authority of any foreign power) by adding to the section the words "provided that the said appeal shall not stay execution in criminal cases unless accompanied by an order from the judge from whose decision such appeal is taken restraining the sheriff or other officer from executing the sentence of the trial judge."

Mr. Hoar gave an illustration of the value of the proposed legislation, the case of a wife murderer in New Jersey who had pleaded guilty and been sentenced to death, but for whom an appeal had been taken on the ground that the constitution of the United States provided for a jury trial in all capital cases. The bill passed with an additional amendment, "or unless such order be obtained from some justice of the supreme court of the United States."

The army appropriation bill was reported and placed on the calendar. Mr.
Stewart giving notice that he would call it up Monday provided it did not interfere with the Chinese bill.

The urgent deficiency bill was then taken up and amendments were agreed to appropriating $25,000 for the expense of representation of the United States at the Columbian historical exposition at Madrid in commemoration of the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America; appropriating $7,230 to reimburse the state of Montana for expenses of its constitutional convention; allowing an expenditure of $5,000 for a fish hatchery at Northville, Mich.; appropriating $100,000 for continuing the work of the eleventh census; striking out an appropriation of $40,365 for printing a new edition of the postal laws and regulations. The bill as amended was then passed and the calendar was taken up.

The Chinese exclusion bill was taken up and Mr. Chandler proceeded to present testimony as to the continuous inroduction of Chinese from Canada and British Columbia in order to show the need of more stringent laws to prevent the influx of Chinese over the land border.

At the close of a speech by Mr. Davis, without any action on the bill, the senate went into executive session and soon after adjourned.

THE HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—The house on opening proceeded to the consideration of the Noyes-Rockwell contested election case and Mr. Fellows, of New York, took the floor to close the case for the contestee.

The discussion became exciting when Mr. Bourke Cockran took the floor in advocacy of Rockwell's claim. His language was scathing and his oratory was impressive. He mined no words and his philippic against the majority report was very powerful and was received with tumultuous applause by his party colleagues.

At the conclusion of Mr. Cockran's remarks, Mr. O'Ferrall, in closing the debate, hoped that there would be a calm after the hurricane. After listening to the gentleman's he was reminded of the story of the belated traveler who was picking his road by the flashes of lightning. But the lightning was not so terrible as the thunder, and made this invocation: "Oh, Lord, I would like to have a little more light and not so much noise." As Mr. Cockran had scarcely touched upon the merits of the case the retort was thoroughly appreciated.

Mr. O'Ferrall referred to Hill as a fox and to Cleveland as a lion, and his reference to the "magnificent and grand Grover Cleveland of the state of New York" brought down thunders of applause.

Debate closed after two hours of intense interest. The previous question having been ordered, the vote was taken on the first of the minority resolutions which declares that Noyes was not elected.

A separate vote being demanded, the first vote was taken on the first resolution of the minority, which (a substitute) declared that Noyes was not elected. This was carried—yeas 140, nays 98. Thirty-nine democrats voted to sus-tain the report of the majority. There was no break in the republican ranks.

Then came the vote on the second substitute resolution, declaring Rockwell entitled to his seat. This was agreed to—yeas 128, nays 106.

Mr. Bryan, of Nebraska, came forward with a motion to re-commit with instructions to the committee to take further testimony bearing upon the sixteen Doyle votes and the twenty-eight marked ballots. This was defeated—yeas 110; nays 125—and then the resolution as amended was agreed to without further opposition. Thus Mr. Rockwell was retained in his seat. The house then took a recess until 8 o'clock, the evening session to be for the consideration of private pension bills.

One More Week.
Next week will be the last that any meat will be sold on time by L. Bahner. On May 1st his cash sales commence and some of his prices will be quoted in next Saturday's paper. Watch for it and also remember Wednesday is his big day.

Remember Peter Pehl when you want a lunch.

Will Pay for Itself.
If you use a gasoline stove one summer you will use it every summer afterwards. You will save enough in the cost of fuel in one season to pay for the "New Process," the latest improved gasoline stove made. Waller & Harrison, 510 Ohio street, sole agents.

The Reward of Merit.
People always like to patronize those who please them and that is the reason the Empire Steam Lau-dry has the immense trade that they have. It is simply a reward for the superior work they have turned out in the time they have been in operation. Their work is first class in all respects and is called for and delivered promptly.

The finest assortment of wines, whiskies, etc. at Pehl's.

I Heard a Woman Say
That you can buy the best sug-cured hams, bacon and shoulders at S. WRIGHT & SON, 701 Ohio street.

THEY MUST COME TO IT.
We Lead, Others Follow--They Can't Help It.

There are stores selling for cash but the People's Cash Grocery is the only one that keeps the best assortment of goods.

You can get anything in the vegetable line or any kind of groceries.
The freshest and best always on hand at 604 Ohio street.

Give Peter Pehl a call and try one of his choice dinners.

Healthy people, happy people, prosperous people, are blessings to themselves and associates. Such are they who get their supplies from Aughe Bros. grocery, 612 Ohio street.

A fine assortment of the Haywood baby carriages, the best in the market at Collins & Farnham's.

Spring lamb at Stevenson's.

To Investors.
We have on hand several farm loans bearing seven per cent. interest, secured on improved Pettis county farms worth twice to four times the amount loaned. Those wishing to lend money on absolutely safe security, and where interest payments will be punctual, can find no better investments. We can place any sum from $300 up.
MOREY & CRAWFORD.

He Can Suit You.
If you want a choice veal cutlet or a fine roast, you can get it at the market house from John G. Kehl.
He has spring lamb, too, and in fact, anything good that you want in the meat line. Give him a call.

The Fulton Market restaurant makes a specialty of short orders.

A Plucky Girl.
One of the Matthewson house girls at Parsons struck out last Sunday and succeeded in getting a fine farm in the Cheyenne-Arapahoe country within six miles of a good business town. Her name is Miss Emma Blanchard.
